Mobile service

MTN Airtel-Tigo Mobile telephone service providers provide gateway to internet using GPRS, 3G and 4G. Cell phone SIM cards are widely available; however, every SIM card user/buyer in Rwanda is expected by law to be registered for activation. SIM card can be registered at the point of purchase, including at the airport.

Currency

The Unit of currency is the Rwandan Franc (RWF) that is divided into 100 centimes. Exchange rates are subject to fluctuation. Currently, 1 EUR is approximately equivalent to around 1,020 RWF.

Banking services

Most internationally recognised currencies and travellers' cheques can be exchanged at commercial banks, hotels and international airport. Major credit cards are accepted in most hotels, restaurants and shops.

Weather

November is a cloudy month in Kigali with some rain showers. Temperatures vary from 17°C to 26°C.

Time

The time in Rwanda is GMT+2.

Plastic bags

As part of an environmental protection policy, plastic bags are not allowed into Rwanda. Passengers entering Kigali International Airport, or any other border posts with plastic bags are required to discard them, and are supplied with an environmentally friendly alternative at a cost ranging between $2-$6.

Electricity supply

The power supply in Rwanda is 220/240V AC. It is advisable to bring your own round, two-prong adapter and transformer for 100V AC.
