Industry 4.0 international days, 6 & 7 March

Conference and Business meetings

Conference – 6th March

During Global Industrie, Auvergne-Rhône-Alpes Entreprises will organise an international conference. Through keynotes, panel discussions and networking, the aim is to share with companies information and good practices that have emerged in industrial companies all over the world – from a technological, economical and human point of view – to take advantages of these technologies and enhance performance.

About 12 companies, SMEs, intermediate-sized enterprise, and international companies such as Siemens, Staübli, Gravotech and Geprom, will share their experience with the participants and discuss about :

- the importance of rethinking business strategies and business models impacted by these new technologies,
- the need to train employees in these new technologies,
- and the need to recruit new competences and profiles (e.g.: data scientists...)

Business meetings – 6-7th March

The international Business meetings about Industry 4.0 will be organised on 6th and 7th March. This matchmaking event is a great opportunity to meet potential cooperation partners for technological, commercial or collaborative research projects in this field. People meet and greet 20 minutes to build connections. It will also be open to Horizon 2020 calls for proposal related to this thematic.

How it works ?

1. Register
2. Select your attendance, complete your personal and organisation information, select relevant keywords describing your areas of activity
3. Complete your profile in the Marketplace: what are your cooperation offers and/or requests
4. Send meetings requests after browsing participant's profiles, and manage your meetings requests
5. On March 5th, you will receive your schedule of pre-arranged meetings, according to your availability

Who can participate ? All private and public industrial players (companies, clusters, research laboratories, incubators...), from the entire added value chain and all the various user markets.

Participants have to register for the conference and/or the business meetings on the dedicated event website : <https://industry-days-2019.b2match.io/>
